

Who Pays for our Energy Future? - Timetable for projects										Paper 6b Appendix A
	October	November	December	January	February	March	April	May
1 Impact of cost scenarios and policies on consumer bills
Release of Decc's revised estimates of impact on consumer bills	Yellow
Review to determine additional work needed / critique			Blue
Develop alternate market conditions / policies / optimism				Blue
Commission alternate modelling of consumer bill costs and sensitivity analysis				Green
Engagement with consumer, environment & fuel poverty alliance				Blue
Key meetings			*	*	*
			DECC / CF	CF / alliance	CF / DECC/Alliance
2 Environmental / social tariff charges and taxes - Insight from consumers
Write and circulate for comment invitation for tender for Discrete Choice work		Blue
Commission project			Blue
* Phase one: qualitative work on consumer attitudes to env. / social charges/taxes				Green	Green
* Phase two: discrete choice modeling of trade-offs customers will accept					Green
Write-up and influence								Green	Blue
3 A framework for the trade-offs between affordability, security and carbon
Review material and identify the potential trade-off elements				Blue
Commission development of a framework to work through elements					Green
Stakeholder engagement plan and consumer trade-off exercise							Blue						